I'd be interested to watch you publish state secrets. I think you're naive enough about this to believe you do so, but to help you a bit, try this list of books which have been banned in the US at some time or other some way. The list is not considered to be comprehensive, but is certainly interesting. One of the most sh examples would be the banning of Ulysses (Joyce) from 1918 to 1930 by the US Postal Service, but there many, many other examples.
